Grievance Redressal Policy

In order to redress individual as well as collective grievances; general in nature, and also related to ragging and sexual harassment of the students, teachers and the staff of the college, Grievance Redressal Mechanism has been devised by KG College of Arts and Science. Grievance Redressal Mechanism has been constituted with the following details and the representations of the stakeholders in different capacities to enquire the nature and extent of the grievances.

What is a Grievance? A grievance may be any kind of discontent or dissatisfaction or negative perception, whether expressed or not, arising out of anything connected with the college that a student or staff thinks, or even feels, is unfair, unjust or inequitable. Any grievance/complaint relating to sexual harassment and ragging will be covered by different committees mentioned above form for the purpose under a separate mechanism for addressing such matters.

Objectives:

- To formulate a policy to investigate and review complaints or grievances.
- To create awareness of availability of members
- To investigate the causes of the grievances.
- To ensure an effective solution to the grievance depending upon the gravity of the grievance.

Awareness Policy: The institution has devised its fix policy to undertake various measures to create awareness to avoid the cases of grievances in regards to sexual harassment, ragging and general grievances of the students, faculty and the staff. The awareness among them has been created through-

- Prospectus
- Undertaking of students and parents at the time of admission

- Institutional website
- On campus display of rules.

The committee has three layers working separately to address the specific issues. The three segments of the committee are

1. General Grievance Redressal Committee
2. Internal Complaints Committee
3. Anti-Ragging Committee

These three committees shall work under the control and guidance of the Principal to redress the grievances. Grievances of serious nature if any can only be forwarded to the highest authority viz. College Committee or the Governing Body. Issues common in nature can be sorted out then and there only at the committee level. The grievances can be represented through online, drop boxes placed at various places in the campus, in person: oral or written and cases detected during the vigilance of the Discipline Committee. The Committee shall meet at least twice in an academic year but in emergency, it can meet any number of times. The committees are required to maintain the record. Note: While these platforms allow to voice the concerns in an open manner it is imperative that the complainant exercises due diligence and care in deciding what he/she would qualify as a grievance that is serious enough to deserve the attention of this committee of senior faculty of the institution. All the committees to redress the Grievances on campus have student representatives.

1. General Grievance Redressal Committee: There shall be a grievance redressal committee at the institutional level to redress the grievances of students, faculty members and the staff in the institution during the general functioning. The committee shall meet at least twice a year or as and when required. The Principal shall be the chairperson of the committee and a senior faculty member shall facilitate it as its Convener. The Chairperson shall nominate faculty members and students as the members.

2. Internal Complaints Committee: - In pursuance of UGC (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal of Sexual Harassment of Women Employees and Students in Higher Education Institutions) Regulations, 2015 read with Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013, the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) of the College is constituted as under to deal with complaints relating to Sexual harassment at the work place. There shall be a committee at the institutional level to prevent the sexual harassment of the students, teachers and the staff in the institution during the general functioning. The institution follows the guideline as per the UGC and formed an Internal Complaint Committee. The Committee shall meet at least twice in a year or as and when required. The Principal shall be the Chairperson of the committee and faculty wise representation shall be given and a few students shall act as members nominated by the Principal. Besides, a senior faculty member shall facilitate it as its Convener. A legal adviser, a social worker & a medical doctor shall also be nominated by the Principal as the members. The institution is abide by the following policy

- a. Confidentiality of the student's identity on the concerns raised in sexual harassment be maintained.
  - b. Dress code and code of conduct for female and male students to be formed
  - c. 24X7 point of contact for the students to address their concerns immediately be established
  - d. Orientation for the female students on the potential activities which may led to sexual harassment be given.
  - e. Activities such as molesting, bullying and any other forms of physical disturbance and mental disturbance to the students be considered as sexual harassment
  - f. Update of policy from time to time as per the Government norms and regulations is taken care off.
- https://www.ugc.ac.in/pdfnews/9606743\_ICC-GSP.pdf

3. Anti-Ragging Committee: The institution adopts the anti-ragging policy which was specified by the UGC, dated April 2009, NO. F 1-16/2007 (CPP-II) to observe and regulate the ragging cases of the students that occurred in the institution during the general functioning. The Committee shall meet at least twice in a year or as and when required. The Principal shall be the Chairperson of the committee and senior faculty members shall facilitate it as its Convener. The Chairperson shall nominate faculty wise members as the members of it to regulate the affairs along with student representatives. Students can read the Anti-Ragging Policy followed by the College and take their pledge against ragging in the link ps://www.antiragging.in

1. J. Innocent Divya

IAS Officer, Managing Director - Tamil Nadu Skill Development Corporation (TNSDC)

Innocent Divya is a 2009 cluster IAS official of Tamil Nadu framework. She is viewed as an extraordinary official who has brought the ethos of extreme hard working attitudes in the organization. An official with a clean record, Divya has accomplished gigantic achievements in saving the remarkable biodiversity of Nilgiris. She is a B. F.Sc. graduate. She was made District Collector and District Magistrate of Nilgiris in July 2017 and she had stayed in this post for over four years to turn into an encouraging sign for the delicate and energetic Nilgiris. As Collector of the Nilgiris, her significant needs are environment preservation and protection of the delicate and remarkable Nilgiris Biosphere, and working on the fundamental conveniences, especially of the weak tribal gatherings native to the Nilgiris District.

Starting her campaign for climate security, she initiated Unnadha Udhagai (Sublime Udhagai/Ooty) that won the organization the Green Award for the year 2018 from the Tamil Nadu government and the Skoch Silver honor 2019.

Among this multitude of steps taken towards the development of Nilgiris district, she enforced the total prohibition on plastic in the region. Divya lets it out as one that was the hardest to execute. Divya is currently serving as the Managing Director of the Tamil Nadu Skill Development Corporation (TNSDC).

2. Commander Prasanna Edayilliam

Retired Naval Officer - Indian Navy, Head of Mahila Wing – VDM India NGO, Executive Member - Distress Management Collective India

Cdr Prasanna Edayilliam is retired Naval Officer who worked as an Air Traffic Controller in the Indian Navy. She is one of the 5 lady officers who initiated the fight for the permanent commission for women, which culminated on 17 March 2020 with a favorable judgment from Hon Supreme Court of India, after 10 long years. Entries for girls are open for NDA/RIMC/Sainik school after this judgment.

She is a dynamic professional with 20 plus years of rich experience in the aviation industry across airport management, operations management, and general administration. During her tenure she had demonstrated excellence in handling aircraft accident/incident procedures & investigative techniques. She has attended more than 400 fire and rescue calls. She took part in the rescue operations in the Tsunami disaster. She was also responsible for organizing fire safety programs in her division. She has trained more than 30 batches of fire officers from all over India. She gives talks encouraging young Indian women to pursue challenging careers.

4. A S Thahira

Inspector, State Crime Records Bureau

A. S. Thahira is the Inspector of Police, at the all women police station in Uthukkottai, Tiruvallur District.

Thahira is a multitasker in-charge of the Computer Wing of the State Crime Records Bureau. Thahira has dealt with hardcore criminals, working in the law and order wing of the Tamil Nadu police. Thahira has also been helping missing people reconnect with their families. Through her commendable efforts 92 missing people have been reunited with their families. She is a part of the 'Hunt Mission' led by ADGP Seema Agarwal. Ever since ADGP Seema Agarwal initiated the reunion drive, Thahira has been working relentlessly with NGOs and police stations to unite mentally unsound people with their families. It is her sensitivity and efficiency that has made Thahira, the apt person for the task.

5. Preethi Srinivasan Paraplegic Motivational Speaker

Preethi Srinivasan has seen life as a promising cricketer who captained the Under19 Tamil Nadu State cricket team. She was a champion swimmer, excellent at academics, and a girl who was admired by her peers and their parents alike. For a go-getter like her, having to give up on her passions may have been the most difficult thing to do. But after a seemingly harmless accident took away her ability to walk and confined her to a wheelchair for the rest of her life, Srinivasan had to unlearn everything she knew and start life afresh. Preethi went from playing for the Tamil Nadu women's cricket team at just eight years of age to losing all movement below her neck at 17, from feeling utterly helpless after the accident to now leading the team at her NGO, Soulfree.

Soulfree's main goals are to spread awareness about spinal-cord injuries in India and to ensure that those living with this currently incurable condition are given the opportunity to lead a dignified and purposeful life. The special focus is on women, and they are committed to supporting women with severe disabilities, even if it's not spinal-cord injury. It also provides a monthly stipend that supports those with high-level injuries from low-income backgrounds. Those who are struggling for day-to-day survival are provided '1,000 per month for a period of one There's an 'independent living programme', where they ensure that the financial independence of their beneficiaries continues through the purchase of sewing machines and other seed funding operations. They also organise wheelchair donation drives; conduct spinal-cord injury awareness programmes; provide medical rehabilitation and financial assistance for emergency medical procedures; and connect people with spinal-cord injury through conference calls to ensure that they know they are not alone

6. P Seetha Graveyard Keeper

The Corporation memorial park in Salem gives P. Seetha an inward feeling of harmony. It's her work environment, where she has taken care of around 10,000 bodies in the past 20 years. Everything started at 13 years old, when as a Class 8 student, Seetha saw her mom immolate herself after a squabble with her dad. Incapable of bearing the misfortune, she spent restless evenings at her old neighborhood, Pethanaickenpalayam, in the locale.

A couple of days after the fact, she came to Salem to meet her grandma, who worked at the Corporation cemetery, otherwise called the 'televisions Burial Ground'.

"My grandma frequently advised me to go to class, yet I denied as I got an inward feeling of harmony at the memorial park. I began assisting her with her work, and have kept at it for the past 20 years. I've even covered bodies at 12", says Seetha. "I've been near where bodies are covered around evening time; however I have felt nothing strange".

She clarifies that she's not keen on getting hitched as she's seen what had befallen her mom. As for the difficulties she faces, Seetha clarifies, "Bodies that are sent after post-mortem are hard to cover as we need to eliminate every one of the plastic they are enveloped by." If these bodies are covered as they show up, they would require 20-30 years to decay, rather than the standard 3-4 months.

She currently resides and dozes around evening time in a room in the burial ground which was redesigned by a private NGO. Seetha has an interest in public authority. Despite having done a stupendous job, Seetha leads a life of simplicity.

7. Sheeba Ameer

Social Worker, Founder of 'Solace'

From being a housewife to the mother of an ailing child to a social worker, Sheeba provides solace to thousands of families across Kerala. While her daughter was still struggling with cancer, she started an organization, 'Solace', in 2007.

In 1998, Sheeba's daughter Nilufar was diagnosed with cancer. She was 13 years old then. Sixteen long years after battling the disease, Nilufar breathed her last in 2013.

While her daughter was under treatment Sheeba spent time with the parents of other kids battling cancer. She found that there were monetary limitations for these families that kept them from providing proper treatment, while on the clinic bed; Nilufar would frequently impart her pain to her mom, on becoming aware of the sufferings of different families. She recalls Nilufar would advise her to go assist those families, to give similar help she gave her then, at that point. In 2001, Sheeba started working at the Pain and Palliative Care unit situated in Thrissur. By then, at that point, she had started to think over setting up an association to help kids with perilous sicknesses.

The long term period she was related with the Pain and Palliative Care pediatric unit gave her schoolwork and groundwork for setting up Solace. The main objective of Solace was to provide affordable medical, psychological and social help to cancer patients and their families. After a decade in 2017, Solace has four focuses across Kerala and monetarily helps upwards of 1400 youngsters. The association spends basically Rs. 10 lakh consistently to help the treatment costs of these youngsters.

Sheeba, through her association, gives monetary guidance of at minimum Rs. 8 lakh consistently to the numerous recipients she works with. The drive has gotten liberal gifts from numerous benefactors, well-wishers and allies from across the globe.

From counseling family members to extending financial aid, Solace is like a ray of hope for hundreds of people suffering from Cancer.

8. Tiffany Brar Social Service Worker, Founder – Jyothirgamaya Foundation

Tiffany Brar is an Indian community service worker who became blind as an infant due to oxygen toxicity. Brar is the founder of Jyothirgamaya Foundation, a Non-profit organization that teaches life skills to blind people of all ages. Tiffany Brar is a powerful orator, unique teacher, social dissident, and at any point prepared to speak loudly for her local area and for different incapacities too. She has a decent control over more than six Indian dialects. In spite of all obstacles and difficulties because of her inabilities during her schooling, she had the option to score the best grades in the CBSE board assessments. She finished her Degree in English Literature from Kerala University and later on, her Bachelor's in Education in a custom curriculum from RamaKrishna Mission Vivekananda University, Coimbatore after which she started her vocation as a secretary. She then, at that point, proceeded to visit many visually impaired individuals and figured out that they were all back benchers and, surprisingly, attached to their beds. She promptly needed to put her expertise to activity and began a versatile visually impaired school, which follows the aphorism that "in the event that the visually impaired can't go to class, let the school go to them". She went to many homes all over all through the province of Kerala openly transporting the visually impaired that were restricted to their four dividers in portability, certainty, correspondence, day to day residing abilities, Braille, access innovation, etc.

Tiffany, as an admirer of autonomous voyaging and experience, has broken the boundaries that young ladies can't do sports, particularly the individuals who are visually impaired by refuting the general public. She has done sky jumping, paragliding, couple cycling, rope climbing and much more. The President of India himself alludes to her as "THE COURAGEOUS DAUGHTER OF INDIA", at the United Nations International Day for Persons with Disabilities in December, 2017 where he additionally gave her the "Public Award for the Best Role Model". Her endeavors have also received felicitation, from the former President of India, late Dr. .APJ .Abdul Kalam. She is one of the main visually impaired ladies In India who has delivered 5 TED talks on an assortment of intriguing subjects.

For her commendable outstanding work, Tiffany has received numerous awards and recognitions both national and international.

9. Trisha PrabhuInnovator, Social Entrepreneur, Global Advocate and Inventor of ReThink™

Trisha Prabhu is a 21-year-old redefining the next generation of tech & social leadership through founding ReThink™, a patented technology and an effective way to detect and stop online hate. In the fall of 2013, Trisha, then just 13 years old, read the shocking news story of Rebecca Sedwick's suicide. After being cyberbullied for over a year and a half, Rebecca, a 12-year-old girl from Florida, took her own life. As a victim of harassment herself, Trisha was shocked, heart-broken, and outraged - she couldn't be a bystander, and decided to be an Upstander. In response, Trisha created the patented technology product ReThink™, which detects and stops online hate at the source, before bullying occurs and the damage is done. Her globally acclaimed research has found that with ReThink, adolescents change their mind 93% of the time and decide not to post an offensive message.

As a social entrepreneur, Trisha has received worldwide acclaim in the business world. In 2016, President Obama and the U.S. State Department invited Trisha to the Global Entrepreneurship Summit, to showcase her work and share her story with other entrepreneurs. Not long after, ReThink was featured on ABC's hit T.V. show, Shark Tank. In 2019, ReThink was the Grand Prize Winner of Harvard University's President's Innovation Challenge. In 2020, Trisha was named one of the inaugural winners of the prestigious Elevate Prize, as well as an Adrian Cheng Fellow at Harvard Kennedy School's Social Innovation and Change Initiative. In 2021, she was the youngest honoree named to Forbes' 30 Under 30 Social Impact list.

Trisha has also helped spark a rallying cry against online hate. To date, she has shared the ReThink message in over 60+ keynotes in 30+ cities in 3 languages, speaking on platforms that include TED, TEDx, WIRED, The Aspen Ideas Festival, La Ciudad de Las Ideas, SAP, Girls Who Code, the Family Online Safety Institute, Universities, Schools, Conferences and more.

Outside of ReThink, Trisha is involved in a number of initiatives that are close to her heart. In 2017, she was elected Illinois's Youth Governor - the state's first female Youth Governor in 28 years. She's also an ardent supporter of empowering women in the entrepreneurial community. Whether volunteering her time to teach young women how to code at Girls Who Code, or leading SoGal Boston, a chapter of the SoGal movement, which is committed to ending the diversity gap in entrepreneurship, Trisha is working to inspire and support a generation of fierce, fearless leaders tackling the world's most important issues.

Trisha is currently pursuing her undergraduate education at Harvard University in Cambridge, MA.

*She is the lady of rapturous delight;
A woman of ideas - Distinctive and right.
She is endowed with ability,
and is also a personification of Mightiness and Mobility.
Her skill set is the best.
Though she works hard, she never rests.
"You can't do it" is what people tell and yell their heads off.
but, becoming an entrepreneur is what she had always dreamt of.
Her success evokes joyful emotions,
whereas failure demands practice and perfection.
Sometimes she is heartbroken and in desolation, yet, takes unilateral decision even during ambiguous situation.
