

Proposal for Financial Support for PG Student's Publications in Scopus / IEEE Indexed Conferences and Journals

Preamble

This proposal aims to encourage PG students to publish their research outcomes in reputed Scopus/IEEE indexed conferences and journals. It supports the development of research culture among students and faculty, promotes collaborative publications and enhances the institution's academic and research output.

Objectives

- To inculcate research and publication culture among PG students.
- To encourage PG students to publish their project outcomes in reputed Scopus Indexed Conferences / Journals.
- To promote collaborative research publications between students and faculty guides.
- To improve the institution's research output for NAAC and NIRF ranking enhancement.
- To utilize the project work of PG students for quality research publications

Programmes Covered

Programme	Year	No. of Students
M.Sc. Computer Science	Final Year	23
M.Sc. Software Systems	Pre-Final Year	38
M.Com.	Final Year	19
Total		80

Expected Outcome

Particulars	Details
Expected Publications	50 Papers
Faculty Members Involved	14
Papers per Faculty Guide	3 or 4
Time for Completion	August, 2027

Approximate Budget & Contribution

Particulars	Amount
Maximum Cost per Paper	₹12,000
Total Papers	50
Total Estimated Budget	₹6,00,000

Contributor	Percentage	Amount	Remarks
Management	50%	₹3,00,000	Institutional Support
Faculty Guides	30%	₹1,80,000	₹13,000 per Faculty (Approx.) (14 Faculty guides) ₹3,600 per faculty per paper
Students	20%	₹1,20,000	₹2,400 per Student (Approx.)

General Conditions

- Publications should be in Scopus / IEEE Indexed Conferences or Journals.
- Faculty members shall be guides/co-authors.
- Institutional affiliation must be mentioned as: “KG College of Arts and Science”
- Financial support will be provided as reimbursement based on publication proof and payment receipts.

